

Shlomit Ezron Yarkoni
052-5345960
Shlomit@yaze.co.il

Education:

1984-1987 MA in Archaeology & Linguistics, Hebrew University.
1981-1984 BA in Archaeology, Ben-Gurion University of the Negev.

Employment Experience:

February 2010 – now Strategy and Resource development group: owner
2007 – 2010 New Israel Fund: Associate Director.
2006 – 2007 BRM Institute for Technology & Society – establishing and managing.
2003 – 2006 IVN, Israel Venture Network, – establishing and managing.
2002 – 2003 New Israel Fund: Associate Director.
2001 – 2002 LATET- International Humanitarian Aid Organization: General Manager.
1999 – 2001 I.D.T. Europe - Call Center/Customer Service Manager, Brussels – Belgium.
1987 - 1999 GRANIT, a chain of 17 bookstores: owner and manager.
1984 - 1987 Haifa University: Lecturer at the Archeology Department.

Volunteer Activities (part of the range):

- 2010 – 2015 Political Activities: Member of the Meretz party governing caucus.
- 2003 – 2012 The Israel Women's Network (IWN): Board Member
- 1989 - 2006 Center for Victims of Sexual Assault: Board member and Board chairperson. Involved in communications and fundraising, and working as a hotline volunteer.
- 2005 – 2010 Center for Political Leadership: Establishing and Chairperson.
- 2001 - 20015 Ambassadors of Goodwill: Among the founders of the organization. Board member.
- 2004 - 2006 MERCHAV - Israeli Urbanism: Among the founders of the organization. Board member. Involved in fundraising and formulating strategic plans
- 2003 – 2006 BINA – Center for Jewish Identity and Hebrew Culture: Advisory Board

Professional and Personal Skills:

- I am an entrepreneur and have a creative thinking.
- Creating a non-governmental organization in Israel, with all its functions and components.
- I played a leading role in developing strategy, messaging and implementing major campaigns for organizations across a variety of fields.
- Proven ability to provide comprehensive and integrated resource development services, including strategic planning, donor stewardship in Israel and North America, foundation research and outreach, grant writing and more.
- Computer proficiency with MS Office.
- Ability to execute a number of projects simultaneously.
- Proven ability to analyze, plan and manage personnel.
- Highly developed communication and leadership skills.
- Ability to make independent decisions.
- General business knowledge related to financial management.